

SUNFLOWER ELECTRIC POWER CORPORATION

A Touchstone Energy® Cooperative

... energy done right

The contractor for engineering, procurement, and construction of the new Holcomb power plant has not been selected. When information about the EPC contractor selection is available, it will be shared through the company newsletter. Please go to the Recieve Project Updates page on this website to sign up for the newsletter.

If you would like to register your company information for the Holcomb Expansion Project and future Sunflower Electric Power Corporation projects, please fill out the form below. Registering does not ensure your company will be selected for the Holcomb Expansion Project or any other Sunflower project. Forms must be filled out in their entirety to ensure that all of your company information is captured. Thank you for your continued interest in the Holcomb Expansion Project.
